

Stakeholder seminar – K.G. Jebsen Centre for the Law of the Sea (JCLOS)

12 November 2014, 13.00–17.00

Venue: Fridtjof Nansen Institute, Fridtjof Nansens vei 17, Lysaker

PROGRAM

- 13.00 Welcome – Arild Moe (Acting Director, Fridtjof Nansen Institute)
- 13.05 The K.G. Jebsen Centre for the Law of the Sea – Tore Henriksen (Professor, University of Tromsø)
- 13.20 Fundamental Law of the Sea Challenges for Norway – Øystein Jensen (Senior Research Fellow, Fridtjof Nansen Institute)
- 13.35 Commentator: Margit Tveiten (Director-General, Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs)
- 13.45 Questions and discussion
- 14.00 Two Current Issues: Revenue Sharing and Maritime Boundary Delimitation
Signe Veierud Busch (Associate Professor, University of Tromsø) and Alex G. Oude Elferink (Professor, K.G. Jebsen Centre for the Law of the Sea/Director, Netherlands Institute for the Law of the Sea)
- 14.30 Commentator: Ole Anders Lindseth (Director-General, Norwegian Ministry of Petroleum and Energy)
- 14.40 Questions and discussion
- 14.50 Coffee/refreshments
- 15.15 Search and Rescue in the Arctic: The Work of the Arctic Council – Svein Vigeland Rottem (Senior Research Fellow, Fridtjof Nansen Institute)
- 15.30 Commentator: Morten Mejlænder-Larsen (Discipline Leader, Arctic Operation and Technology, DNV GL)
- 15.40 Questions and discussion
- 15.50 Regional Fisheries Management Issues, including in the Arctic – Erik Molenaar (Professor, K.G. Jebsen Centre for the Law of the Sea/Deputy Director, Netherlands Institute for the Law of the Sea)
- 16.05 Commentator: Vidar Landmark (Director-General, Department for Fisheries and Aquaculture, Norwegian Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries)
- 16.15 Questions and discussion
- 16.25 Closing the seminar – and discussion with stakeholders (Tore Henriksen, Professor, University of Tromsø)

REGISTRATION: To POST@FNI.NO or 67 11 19 00 by 10 November 2014