

NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENTARY
OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE
ON INTELLIGENCE AND SECURITY SERVICES

Research Seminar on Democratic Control of Secret Services, International Cooperation, and Human Rights

Organized by:

The Research Group for Constitutional Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Tromsø – The Arctic University of Norway, and
The Norwegian Parliamentary Intelligence Oversight Committee (EOS-Utvalget)

12 October 2015; 12.00-16.00. Room 4.213

Program

- 12.00      Magne Frostad, Dr. Iuris, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Tromsø – The Arctic University of Norway: Opening remarks
- 12.10      Marieke Koetsjarjan-de Bie, Acting Secretary, The Dutch Review Committee on the Intelligence and Security Services (CTIVD): «Safeguards in international information sharing»
- 12.45      Stig Ole Johannessen, Ph.D. Professor Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Nordland: «What does it mean to control the controllers? The erosion of police leader’s “democratic mind sets”, and the rise of cultures of control, secrecy and fear in the Norwegian police organization in the wake of the 2011 acts of terror»
- 13.20      Break
- 13.40      Anett Beatrix Fause Osnes, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Tromsø – The Arctic University of Norway: «Legal perspectives on the use of information from secret monitoring»

- 14.15 Njord Wegge, Ph.D., Senior Adviser, The Norwegian Parliamentary Intelligence Oversight Committee: «The challenge of international intelligence oversight cooperation. The experience with ENNIR and the limits of cooperation among European democracies»
- 14.50 Hans Born, Ph.D., Senior Fellow at the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF): «Accountability of International Intelligence Cooperation»
- 15.25 Break
- 15.35 Panel discussion and closing remarks
- 16.00 Closing of the seminar